itC The Independent Theatre Council is the UK management association and political voice for independent performing arts organisations and professionals

Since 1974 ITC has been empowering and supporting its diverse membership by:

- Providing high quality management, legal and financial advice
- Developing tailored arts management training
- Creating excellent networking opportunities
- Representing the sector with a powerful, articulate voice
- Managing projects to enrich, enhance and raise the profile of the performing arts

ITC offers 2 Full Membership packages:

Organisation Membership is open to companies and venues wishing to benefit from the full range of ITC's services

Independent Membership is aimed at managers, producers, project managers and consultants interested in accessing services tailored to the needs of individuals
